

National Viticulture & Enology Extension Leadership Conference (NVEELC)

August 14-17, 2022 | San Joaquin Valley, CA

Hosted by University of California Cooperative Extension

NVEELC is a grassroots event, held annually since 2006, that's planned and organized by the community of practice and annually supported by NGRA. This year's event promises...

- A robust, well-designed program in the nation's largest, most diverse viticultural area, featuring wine, table and raisin grape production
- A unique learning experience, including three full days of tours
- Support from NGRA, including communications and service as fiduciary agent
- A highly engaged network of extension agents

Approximately 50 extension and outreach specialists from across the U.S. are anticipated. All we need is YOU!
